"In view of the projected three-story Monarch building which H. M. Busts contemplates erecting on the southeast corner of Brand and Harvard, together with the other building improvements in the block between Harvard and Colorado, we have the best location we might desire," says E. C. Pendroy, principal in the new department store.

Architect's sketch of Pendroy Dry Goods Company 3-story building here.

More than $250,000 will be represented in the stock of the Pendroy Dry Goods Company store and building which the Roy L. Kent Company will construct immediately for John G. Huntley and W. E. Evans. Alfred F. Priest is the architect.

THREE STORY DEPARTMENT STORE FOR HARVARD AND SOUTH BRAND

Investment of Quarter of Million Dollars Will at Once be Made at Northeast Corner, Announced

REPRESENTING the investment of a quarter of a million dollars, announcement was made this morning by E. C. Pendroy of the Pendroy Dry Goods Company that the Roy L. Kent Company will commence construction at once of a three story modern steel frame department store building at the northeast corner of Harvard street and Brand boulevard.

You will see this store at Harvard and Brand early in the spring as work is to begin at once

The structure will be built by John G. Huntley and Attorney W. E. Evans, local subdividers and property owners, on their property with 52 feet frontage on Brand boulevard and 120 feet on Harvard street.

More than $80,000 will be put into the building while the land will bring the total valuation of the property to $120,000. Mr. Pendroy and his associates will have $150,000 invested in fixtures and stock. Alfred F. Priest, widely known Los Angeles architect, who resides here, has handled the plans to the satisfaction of the builders and lessee, while Mr. Kent has agreed to have the store ready for an early spring opening.

Mr. Pendroy came to southern California from Newton, Kans., to benefit his wife's health, having been interested in two stores in Kansas, with combined stocks worth more than $300,000 and employing 100 people. His wife was the ready-to-wear buyer in the larger store at Newton.

The Pendroy Dry Goods company will be incorporated for $200,000 and J. E. Ransford, proprietor of Garden Court apartments in Hollywood and formerly with Marshall Field in Chicago, will be financially interested in the concern. Associated also in the active conduct of the store will be John Swearingen of Newton, Kans., as well as several local people whose identity will be revealed later.

Mr. Pendroy is connected with and interested in a number of dry goods stores in the middle west which maintain their own New York buying staff to handle the purchases for six department stores. The Glendale

LOCAL LEGION URGES PUBLIC ATTENTION TO SCHOOL WORK

Emil O. Kiefer, Commander of Glendale Post, Gives Out Statement to People

American Education Week is endorsed by the local post of the American Legion in the following letter from Commander Emil O. Kiefer to citizens of this community:

To the People of Glendale:—The American Legion is distinctly a patriotic organization formed for the purpose of fostering 100 per cent Americanism and for that reason it stands squarely behind and beside the American public school in teaching the pure principles of patriotism as handed down by our forefathers.

As an organization, therefore, we approve and indorse American Education Week to be celebrated December 4 to 10 and we pledge to the public schools of our city our moral support and the assistance of our organization in securing for them the recognition which they deserve and in helping to call the attention of the public to the work they are doing.

Platform Is Outlined

During the convention of the National Education association held at Des Moines, Ia., on July 4 to 8, a joint committee of that organization and the American Legion formulated the following platform which both organizations pledge themselves to support and which the Glendale Post No. 127 of the American Legion unreservedly indorses:

First—All teachers in public, private and parochial schools must be American citizens and must take the oath of allegiance to the United States government.

Second—English must be the basic language in all schools whether public, private or parochial.

Third—Great emphasis must be laid on patriotic exercises and the teaching of history and civics in the schools.

Fourth—School attendance for nine months of the year must be made compulsory through the high school age.

Attention to Schools

Feeling that the public school is the cornerstone of democracy and that without it our republic could not endure beyond the present generation, as commander of the local post of the American Legion, I urge upon every member and upon the people of Glendale the wisdom and necessity of giving their whole-hearted support to the American public school, and I suggest particularly that they give a little time during American Education Week to learn what our schools are doing toward the accomplishment of their great task of turning out American citizens.

Respectfully,
EMIL O. KIEFER,
Commander, Glendale Post No. 127.

BUILDING PERMITS FOR MONTH REACH $460,961 TOTAL

Mark for Year Is $4,597,441 and December Expected to Liberally Contribute

Glendale building permits to the total of $460,961 were issued during the month of November, making a total of $4,597,441 for the year.

"Not as good as last month, but a record mighty hard to beat," says Frank A. Marek, building inspector. "The reason last month for such a record-breaking total was because there were several large buildings and during the last few days of the month a large number of permits were granted. The permits for this month include smaller buildings. December is expected to reach a higher total than November, for there are several large business buildings being planned."

The record for November, 1920, was $334,291, showing an increase of $126,670 for the same month this year. The following permits were issued during November:

Ralphs Grocery Co., 2 story business and office building, 201-207 West Broadway	$ 27,500
W. W. Lee, four 4-room flat, 614 South Louise	14,000
P. F. Rentfrow, store and apartment building, 119 West Broadway	10,000

Your Dollar Needed to Help City Float Secure First Prize

GLENDALE is to be represented in the Tournament of Roses floral pageant at Pasadena New Year's morning.

So much is decided, but the matter of financing the float now occupies the attention of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the work.

Money is needed!

Anything from a dollar up will aid. A hundred ten dollar contributions could be used. From an advertising standpoint, from a civic standpoint, the float will be worth to Glendale whatever is spent.

For two years this city has taken first prize in its division. The same people are in charge of the float's decoration. Almost everybody is willing to bet on a winner. Will you back them in this endeavor?

If so, make your checks payable to J. M. Rhoades, treasurer, float committee, Chamber of Commerce—or take the cash contributions to Mr. Rhoades' office in the Citizens' building, 150 South Brand boulevard.

Traffic Violations Bulk of Business in Local Police Court

Two hundred and ninety cases were handled in the Glendale Police Court during the month of November, according to the report of Judge F. H. Lowe.

But—273 of them were violations of traffic ordinances.

Only seventeen cases were offenses against persons or property. These are tabulated as follows: Murder, two; malicious mischief, one; vagrancy, one; grand larceny, one; petit larceny, one; issuing improper check, one; resisting officer, one; disturbing the peace, three; battery, one; and intoxication, five.

Speeding was the cause of the arrest of eighty-one motorists while disobeying traffic officers' signals brought in another fifty-nine. Only four arrests were made for reckless driving, but fifteen were halted for leaving their cut-out open. According to Judge Lowe there must be a lot of people who don't know that it is against city ordinances all over the country to park next to fire hydrants for he was obliged to penalize thirty autoists for this offense. Fourteen drivers were brought into court for turning between intersections and five for using the wrong side of the street. Two were picked up for disregarding traffic markers and other violations of city traffic ordinances were tabulated as follows: No license plate, one; improper lenses, twenty-five; no safety signal, seven; improper parking, nine; engine running unattended, ninety-five; cutting corners, one; blocking traffic, one; spotlight unadjusted, one; and having no operator's license, three.

ELECTROLIZING OF SALT LAKE LINE IS DISCUSSED

Glendale Officials and Some of Citizens Meet With Railroad Authorities

W. H. Comstock, general manager of the Salt Lake railroad of the Union Pacific system and T. P. Cullen, superintendent of the line, will visit Glendale next Monday to determine the advisibility of electrolizing their branch between Los Angeles and Glendale which has its right-of-way on Glendale avenue, one of the principal boulevards of this city.

This was the decision reached this morning at a conference in the Union Pacific general offices starting at 10 o'clock at which time Mayor Spencer Robinson, City Manager William H. Reeves, Councilmen Davis, Kimlin and Lapham, and Harry C. Levey, president of the Glendale Avenue Improvement Association and Herman Nelson of the same organization, waited upon the railroad men regarding improvements.

Their Interest Grows

Messrs. Comstock and Cullen had A. S. Halsted, general counsel, and C. F. Miller, division engineer, and other subordinates present and from the first they appeared not to realize the importance which the progress of the city has placed their right-of-way. After an earnest appeal by Mayor Robinson and a few pointed remarks by the other Glendale representatives, the attitude of Mr. Comstock and others became one of interest and they are going to see what valuable suburban residential territory their branch to Glendale taps.

It has been the contention of the Glendale avenue residents that electrolization will prove profitable to the Salt Lake line here. This is the first opportunity since the Union Pacific took over the Salt Lake route to apprise the new officials of the suggested improvements.

Inasmuch as Carl Gray, president of the Union Pacific railroad company, favors a policy of progress, there is no question but what that line will consider anything favorable which has the potentialities of profit.

Educational Work Being Carried on by Presbyterians

The officers of the Glendale Presbyterian church have made a definite start in the carrying on of an enlarged program of religious education, which will be continued in many departments in the new church building. Miss Anita Fletcher, who resides at 332 North Isabel street, has already commenced the work with a class of the junior age, which meets at the church building every Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 until 4:30 o'clock, and is open without cost to any boy or girl who may desire to attend. A varied program of music, story-telling, Bible tests, etc., is proving of interest to the pupils.

Miss Fletcher is a graduate of the Presbyterian training school of Chicago and is well equipped for the work of the "week day Bible school." The officers of the church have asked the co-operation of the parents to make the work a success.

Mrs. Charles Toll Is Present at Session of Reading Circle

The meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle, which was held in the library building yesterday, proved to be a "red letter" day, as Mrs. Charles H. Toll, founder of the Circle, was present. She spoke of her appreciation of how the Circle had "carried on" and from which other reading circles had been organized throughout the state.

The review of "A Plan to Give Each Man a Job to Fit His Brains" (Popentoe), was very ably given by Mrs. W. M. Brown, and caused much discussion. Postcards received from Mrs. Rowe, a member of the Circle who is visiting in Massachusetts, were read by the presiding officer, Mrs. A. A. Barton. The reading of the book "All the Children of All the People" (Smith), was continued by Mrs. H. V. Henry. A cordial invitation has been extended to all the women interested in the welfare of the child to visit or join the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle.

SECOND ANNUAL CAT SHOW ENDS; LONG LIST OF PRIZES

Many Felines to Be Taken to San Diego to Enter Big Exhibition There

An unusually large attendance was present last night at the closing of the second annual cat show under the auspices of the Glendale Cat club, at the former Knights of Pythias hall at 138-140 North Brand boulevard. The hall was thronged with visitors until 10 o'clock when the tabbies were taken from their exhibition cages and placed in boxes either to be sent home or to San Diego for the cat show in that city next week.

One exceptionally large cage contained a small, forlorn kitten brought in by a boy who placed it in the cage and put up the following sign:

"I am lost, strayed or stolen. Who wants me? I will give me to you for nothing."

Fifteen minutes later the kitten had an owner.

Here to Recoup Losses
Seeing Thru the U. S. C. of C. Now "At Home"
Electrolized Highways

By Gil A. Cowan

THREE story business blocks for Glendale are going up this winter. Three or four are under consideration and the sky line from now on will be as coquettish as the center of town.

There are one or two five or six-story hotels to be built; there should be an office building for the Pacific Electric station corner, not to forget the large number of other corners and vacant lots; and who knows how high all these will go.

Little need to worry about Glendale, no necessity for fears regarding southern California's prosperity. While beans and oranges and a few other crops were not record breakers in financial return, the losses here are nothing like those suffered in the east.

Farmers in Nebraska are digging down into their pockets this winter to tide them over another year. A mighty lot of them are "game sports" and packing up their luggage to see southern California. They argue rightfully, "Why should we stay at home to lose money."

We know of one Nebraskan who is out here working hard to pay off his losses back there. That's quite an idea. A subdivider told me yesterday that he and his partner had made $16,000 in two months by working day and night almost—and advertising

Real estate is not the only field in which to make money. More than half of the business houses established here since January 1 are financially successful. Of the large number only two or three firms have gone out of business. One of these sold its lease profitably. Hardly one could be called failure.

The foregoing is something for Roger W. Babson, Wellesley Hills prognosticator, to consider. He is known as America's leading business adviser, but how he can get the spirit of Glendale, Calif., in his Massachusetts home is like the illusion now playing in variety called "Sawing Thru a Woman." Babson should name his act "Seeing Thru the U. S."

But Babson says that now is the time to buy unimproved property.

Yes, and now is the time to improve unimproved property. That is actually the root of all profit—improvements. However, hundreds are satisfied to make money from vacant lots.

The Chamber of Commerce is in its new home—the top floor of the Citizens' building. Really, these headquarters are so close to The Glendale Evening News office that Secretary "Jim" Rhoades and his assistants may be able to answer a few of the million questions of tourists who look to the newspaper office for information.

And when these tourists do go to the Chamber of Commerce now they are going to get a good idea of this city and the character of its people. They will find offices equal to any in a city of similar size, a personnel that is larger in numbers and equal in ability to those of other places and also fitting accommodations in the way of rest rooms, dining hall, etc.

Again the grade crossing has claimed its toll of innocents.

Near Red Bluff yesterday twelve boys and girls were killed when a train hit an auto bus in which they were riding.

Time will come when the steam lines will be no more. All will be electrolized highways, privately owned concrete right of ways with long lines of motor vans running each direction.

Passenger traffic eventually will be by motor car for short trips and airplane for any distance. It is entirely reasonable when one stops to consider that it costs the Southern Pacific around $50 a minute to stop the Lark or the Owl or any other fast train.

YANKS MAY TRAIN AT L. A.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Los Angeles has been recommended as a training camp for the New York Yanks by Bob Connery, one of the club's scouts. Connery also advised Manager Huggins to purchase First Baseman O'Connell of the San Francisco Seals.

In the majority of cases the sad look on a man's face is due to overeating.

The WORLD OVER
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—It is going to be as hopeless a task to place the football teams of the country in the order of their strength as it will be to pick an All-American eleven. It is physically impossible for any one team to meet more than a small number of other teams, so that the most highly-flavored combinations never have opposed each other. However, those who have seen both the University of California eleven and those of the east in action will not hesitate long before placing the Pacific coast aggregation up at the top of the list, or at least among the first three elevens of the country, whichever they may be, for there will be considerable diversity of opinion.

Yale has two men, Aldrich and O'Hearn, who are going to figure very prominently in the makeups of All-American teams. Erb of the University of California and Bradshaw of Nevada, quarterbacks of their respective teams, are another brace of backfield men who will have to be seriously considered. Lourie of Princeton, who gained a place last year on practically every All-American team that was doped out, will have a hard time staying on this year. He was considerably disappointing, but it must be taken into consideration that he was out a great part of the season through injuries. "Brick" Muller of California is another coaster who will be seriously considered.

Owens, the Harvard halfback, looks mighty sweet to the football critics, and he is sure of being picked by a majority of the selectors of All-American teams. The fact is that when it came to ground gaining, this chap probably did more than all the rest of the team combined. He is there both on offense and defense.

The Pacific coast figures that it has about thirty men who are worthy of a place on any All-American teams. If this is the case in a matter of less than a dozen teams, the difficulties of getting down to eleven men may be faintly appreciated when it is considered that the rest of the country has a couple of hundred men in nomination for the various positions. Picking All-American teams doesn't get anybody anywhere but it furnishes a lot of entertainment by way of giving us a chance to see what poor pickers the rest of the fellows are.

While Cornell this season has one of the most impressive records in the matter of points scored, there is in the east considerable doubt as to its real strength for the reason that it has lined up against teams that have been relegated to the mediocrity column. What it would be able to do if it got up against a really powerful team is something that never will be known. This is the reason that it is practically an impossibility to rate teams one against the other. Comparative scores are the most futile things in the world in which to make any basis of calculation. Off hand, it seems quite reasonable to presume there are several teams that could take the Cornell measure.

What will be the strength of the coast's champion University of California football team next season?

The great machine moulded by Andy Smith loses by graduation practically right away Captain Latham, Dan McMillan, Lee Cranmer, Stan Barnes, Brodie Stephens, Englebretson and Crip Toomey. Verily an aggregation of genuine stars that would at once reduce an ordinary varsity team to the doldrums. California, however, is extraordinary. The second team at California is about as strong as the first varsity, and the third varsity has individuals who are "tapping at the door" for recognition in higher up company.

Under these conditions it does not look as though the California varsity team is going to be very badly handicapped, if at all, by the graduation of stars mentioned. Andy Smith is using a system in his coaching that assures a steady stream of first class contenders at all times for all places on the team. He has the men graded as stated in three teams and by the time a man reaches the first squad he is ready for regular varsity work. It is the same system as used at Harvard patterned by Percy Haughton.

Already Andy Smith has two high class tackles to take the place of Barnes and McMillan in Dean and Beam. Every other position for the team Smith already has his men picked out for next year and they are all about on a par with the men whose positions they will take. For guards the new prospects are Schuur, a 200-pounder, and Horrell, the lad who captained the freshman team this year. Berkey and Muller will be back at guard next season, and in case of accident Smith has a number of first class understudies ready to go into these two berths.

In the backfield Charlie Erb, the new captain, and recognized as one of the greatest field generals California has ever had, will be on the job at quarter. Don Nichols, who played such a phenomenal game last week, has two more years on the varsity team. Then Nisbet and Morrison both will be back next year so that the back field will be well taken care of. Other great players available for next season are Jack Mitter, regarded by some as the greatest defensive back ever seen at California, and Naylor who was ineligible this year, but is a sure starter next season. Dick Dunn, a halfback of last year's freshman team and who got into the game last week for a few minutes is another remarkable halfback on hand, and these are only a few of genuine stars Coach Andy Smith has to draw on.

All in all California supporters have nothing to worry about regarding the varsity team for 1922. It looks as though the Golden Bears or the Grizzlies or whatever you care to call them are once again to be tagged as a "wonder team" in 1922.

HEAD OF OWLS IS GUILTY

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 1.—Five years in the penitentiary and $5000 fine was the sentence imposed upon John Talbot of South Bend, head of the Owls, by Judge Anderson in federal court. Talbot was convicted by a jury in federal court last week for violation of the Mann act in inducing Pearl Bagley to come from Topeka to South Bend, for immoral purposes.

GUILTY OF SLAYING CHILD

MT. HOLLY, N. J., Dec. 1.—Louis Lively, negro, was found guilty of first degree murder by a jury here in connection with the killing of Matilda Russo, 7, at Morristown several months ago. The jury was out ninety minutes. The child's body was buried in the cellar of the negro's home. Justice Kalish promptly sentenced Lively to die in the electric chair the week of January 18.

When a man repeats the smart sayings of his children he naturally expects you to understand that he is responsible.

'Sawing Through a Woman' to Be Shown on T. D. & L. Stage

During the past year there has been presented on the vaudeville stages of both this country and Europe, one of the most sensational novelties seen in years. "Sawing Through a Woman" has been presented on the coast during the past two weeks by many companies and Meiklejohn & Dunn, in their efforts to give the T. D. & L. theatre the best that the vaudeville world has to offer, has brought the Walter company from Salt Lake to present this illusion on their circuit. In full view of the audience a beautiful young girl is placed in a cabinet and with her head and feet protruding she is then sawed in two.

Also on this great show is Napoleon, the movie ape, who does everything but talk. He rides bicycles, roller skates, walkes on stilts. He is more clever in his vaudeville play than in the movies.

In addition to two other vaudeville acts of unusual merit there will be seen on the screen tomorrow the photoplay, "Not Guilty," in which Richard Dix and Sylvia Breamer are featured. The plot of this picture is most unusual and is well interpreted by a well balanced cast.

GARMENT WORKERS STRIKE

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Six thousand garment makers went on strike here, according to H. Schoolman, head of the local Woman's Suit & Cloakmakers' union. The workers struck in protest against installation of the piece work system, the same issue that is involved in the strike of garment workers in New York. No clothing concerns outside those who manufacture women's garments are affected.

CHINESE MAY FORM RUSSIA ALLIANCE, IS DARK THREAT

If Powers Refuse to Permit Demands, Combination Is Menace in Background

By FRANK CHARLTON
Written for International News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The possibility that China may threaten to enter into an alliance with Russia for the mutual protection of their interests in the Pacific, if the powers refuse to grant the demands which China contends are vital to her future integrity and solvency, confronted the international conference today.

So far this threat hovers only in the background. It has not taken concrete form and is being reserved as the final trump card in the hands of the Chinese.

There is an unofficial Russian envoy in Peking at present, representing the Moscow Soviet and the far eastern republic. This agent—M. Yourin by name—has divided his activities along three lines:

First—To secure formal recognition of the Moscow government by China.

Second—To negotiate an agreement between Russia and China, and Third—To arouse China sympathy for the bolshevik movement, through the dessemination of propaganda.

He has acquired a Chinese following, the exact size of which cannot be estimated.

Powerful Alliance

Russia is the bitter foe of Japan and Britain, two countries that the Chinese allege, have taken leadership in an effort to retain foreign domination in China.

An alliance between Russia and China would combine two vast populattions into a total of about 600,000,000 people and cover nearly the whole Asiatic mainland.

Such a merger would put both Russia and China in a powerful position to resist materially foreign encroachments, especially Japanese, in Manchuria, Mongolia and Siberia.

It would put at the disposal of China the aggressive assistance of the bolshevik leaders and be a source of mutual strength, both economically and militarily.

Huge Armed Force

Premier Briand estimated that Russia could put an army of more than 6,000,000 men in the field.

It is evident that the bolshevists have realized the futility of a successful propaganda campaign in Europe. For the present they are concentrating their attention on Asia.

The Moscow soviet has already made a bid for Chinese friendship by turning back the Chinese Eastern railway to China. However, the return of the railroad did China no good. For Japan immediately took possession of it.

W. B. KELLY STATES NORTHWEST SITE BEST OFFERED

Gives His Reason for His Support of Grey Property for New High School

W. B. Kelly, 106 West Colorado street, in speaking of the meeting of the Greater Glendale Improvement association at the high school next Monday night to discuss the site for the new high school, stated he favors the John R. Grey site. He said:

"The greater part of the wealth of Glendale is in the north and northwest part of the city. Close to 2000 acres are about to be subdivided in the west and northwest sections of Glendale, which means an additional population of from 10,000 to 20,000 for the city within the next four years.

"My personal observation has been that damage from flood waters of the Sycamore Canyon wash in the eastern part of the city was as great as any damage from the Verdugo Canyon wash in the north section of the city, so that, in my opinion, the scare thrown out by the advocates of the east side sites for the high school, concerning the Grey site being under water at any time, is erroneous.

Chosen for City Park

"The city of Glendale itself selected a part of the acreage adjoining the Grey site as the best location for a city park and swimming pool, and this would give easy access for the students and not require them to come two miles.

"The logical place for a high school in any city is the place of the greatest development and growth. I think we should prepare ourselves for the future. The present high school will have to take care of the students until some portion of the new high school is finished, which may be a year or two."

PICKS TWO ELEVENS REPRESENTATIVE OF EAST'S GAME

Sporting Editor Says Lots of Good Material Shown on Field This Year

By JACK VEIOCK
Written for International News Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Crack football players were plentiful in the east this season.

Many broke into the spotlight for the first time. Others upheld reputations previously earned. The crop was surely a bumper one.

Out of the many stars, however, it is possible to select a number of players whose work stood out consistently all season. The selections are presented today for what they are worth.

In the opinion of the writer, the following elevens are fairly representative of eastern football this year:

First Eleven: Sturm, end, Yale; King, tackle, Navy; Brown, guard, Harvard; Stein, center, Pittsburg; Breidster, guard, Army; Into, tackle, Yale; Snively, end, Princeton; Killinger, quarter, Pennsylvania; Aldrich, half, captain, Yale; Lightner, half, Pennsylvania; Owen, fullback, Harvard.

Second Eleven: Macomber, end, Harvard; Keck, tackle, Princeton; Bedenk, guard, Penn State; Wittmer, center, Princeton; Baker, guard, Princeton; Kane, tackle, captain, Harvard; Parr, end, Navy; Buell, quarter, Harvard; Kaw, half, Cornell; Barchet, half, Navy; Garrity, fullback, Princeton.

Gets Mythical Captaincy.

Malcolm Aldrich, Yale's plucky leader, was without a doubt the best all-around halfback the east developed this season and deserves a halfback position and the mythical captaincy of the first eleven. Aldrich did everything well and no player displayed more fighting spirit or greater leadership.

Glen Killinger, Penn State's brilliant quarterback, who kicked, passed the ball with equal ability, and ran his team besides, was the east's best pivotal man, if not the best in the country. In the backfield with these two we have placed Lightner, Penn State, and Owen, Harvard. Lightner was a consistent scoring machine and Owen knew no superior as a line smasher.

Sturm of Yale and Snively of Princeton are placed at the ends. Both played fine football in every game. They got down under punts, crashed through interference, handled forward passes and "took out" their men with regularity when called upon to do so.

Clyde King, Navy's great tackle, and Into, of Yale, were powers of the line. So were Briedster of Army and Brown of Harvard, while Stein, Pittsburg's veteran center, was better than ever.

Second Eleven Strong

The writer believes this eleven could, with time for practice, defeat any other eastern combination, though the "second" eleven stacks up practically as strong in many ways.

There were many players whose work stood out boldly. Such players were Robertson, Dartsmouth's halfback; Wray, Penn's quarterback; French, of the Army; Jordan of Yale; Elliott of Lafayette; Ramsey of Cornell; Davies of Pittsburg, and Cruikshank of Yale.

In the Referee's Corner

by Jack Veiock
International News Sporting Editor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Jack McAuliffe has left our shores for the Ould Sod. After years of sojourning over here the only retired, undefeated lightweight champion has hit the salt-water trail for the tight little isle and "don't know when he'll be back."

"I'm off for Ireland for a visit and to have a look at some fighters over there," said Jack, tilting his pearl gray Fedora over the left ear. "I'm told there are some good boys in Ireland who have the makin's and that all they need is the proper kind of handling. If what they say is true I'll get me up a stable and bring 'em back to the 'States.' I'm going to handle Dan Donnelly, nineteen-year-old heavyweight and a great-great-grandson of old Dan Donnelly, once heavyweight champion of Ireland. They say this lad is a bird of a fighter."

McAuliffe, who has spent a number of years following the footlights and the ponies, is sure of a hearty welcome on the other side. He is one of the native sons from across the water who never had his back on the floor.

Billy Gibson and a number of the lights of the Gotham fistic fraternity are about to form a "Managers' and Fighters' Protective union." Just what the poor down-trodden fighters and managers need in the way of protection is a bit vague. Perhaps they want protection against the fast-growing sentiment in favor of absolute elimination of big guarantees and the belief on the part of the fistic public that a boxer should be willing to work for a fair percentage of what he can draw to the gate.

A new rule made by the New York State Athletic commission makes it compulsory for the timekeeper to bang the bell in tolling off the seconds when a boxer hits the canvas. The other night Bert Colma knocked George Shade down. Shade was stunned. Finally, when he heard the bell, he rose to his feet and started for his corner, turning his back on Colma. Had not the referee rushed after him and called his attention to the fact that the round was not over he might have been knocked cuckoo. He thought the round had ended. To our notion the tolling off the ten seconds on the bell is altogether confusing. We believe the referee could work to better purpose by using his arm and giving an oral count. Most referees have good lungs.

Georgie Daly, erstwhile international amateur bantamweight champion, has flopped into the pro game. He did his flop at the expense of Georgie Lee, the ex-'Frisco laundryman.

Bert Crossley, who started boxing on the advice of Jimmy Wilde, is a fair-looking heavyweight. He broke in the other night at Charley Doesserick's Pioneer Sporting club against Al Roberts and lost a decision, though he should have had no worse than a draw. Crossley is one of Charley Harvey's importations. Harvey brings 'em over by the ship load, gets 'em a trial and if they don't look right, back they go on the next boat.

Captain Mallet, who handles Georges Carpentier's affairs on this side of the pond, was at the ringside the other night when Harry Greb and Charley Weinert met at the Garden.

Mallet is authority for the statement that Georges is positively coming back to the States in January or February to fight Tommy Gibbons and several other light-heavyweights.

"I came all the way from Canada to look this bout over," said Mallet, "and left a mighty fine hunting party to do it. You don't suppose I'd want to lamp these two fighters at the sacrifice of good hunting if Georges was not coming back, do you?"

STATE'S BEARS AND IOWA UNIVERSITY TEAMS TO PLAY?

Selection Is Made, According to Report, for Contest in Pasadena New Year's

According to an unconfirmed report in circulation, the University of Iowa football eleven has been selected by the football committee of the Tournament of Roses to meet the University of California team at Pasadena January 2.

While officials of the football committee refused to admit the Iowans had been chosen to make the trip to Pasadena, they did not make a denial.

According to the report, the invitation to the "big ten" champions was extended by Dr. Wm. Buffield and S. A. Simons, representatives of the Tournament of Roses committee. It was rumored the Iowa Athletic board accepted the proposition at Iowa City, but was withholding announcement regarding a final agreement.

It is "open season" for football coaches in the big ten conference and there are indications that new mentors will boss the gridiron squads at one or two universities next year.

New Deal Is Sought

The sharpshooters apparently are training their guns with deadliest effect on Dr. L. H. Williams, the veteran coach of the University of Minnesota eleven. Dr. Williams long has been regarded as one of the leading coaches of the country and has taught many famous teams. In the season just closed, however, the Gophers had little success.

As a result a strong movement is under way at Minnesota for a new deal in football. Alumni have become active and are openly advocating the removal of Dr. Williams as coach and Prof. James Paige, chairman of the athletic board of control. It seems highly probable that a new athletic policy will result from the present agitation and a new coach is not unlikely.

John R. Richards, head coach at the University of Wisconsin, is said to be on the verge of resigning. Richards criticized Athletic Director T. E. Jones for the methods employed in the sale of tickets for the Wisconsin-Chicago game and Jones resented it.

Favorite with Students

Although Richards has not announced his intention of resigning, he has not openly denied it. Students of the university have rallied to the support of the coach, particularly members of the football squad, with which Richards is a favorite.

Coach Fielding Yost of Michigan was the target of criticism earlier in the football season, but the success of Michigan in the final games of the year apparently has won back the support that Yost lost. It is unlikely that Michigan will even consider seriously a change in coaches.

Elsewhere throughout the conference the coaches are "sitting pretty" and laying plans for the 1922 season.

LOCAL MOVIES AND FEATURE PICTURE T. D. & L. BILL

Great Crowd Attends First Showing; Same Program to Be Given Tonight

Last night witnessed the showing of the local movies at the T. D. & L. theatre, and it was a huge success, if one can determine such by the crowds that attended. The theatre was packed to the doors. Everyone who was in the picture, no doubt, tried to gain admittance, and those also who, perhaps, were not in them, but wanted to get a "look-see" at their friends.

The program started off with views of the city hall and police officials merging into the Armistice day parade, which received generous applause from the audience. Following these scenes the school children—all of them—appeared. Every school in Glendale was represented and these views in particular delighted the hundreds of children who were present.

"The Financier of Glendale" followed a story of pleasing appeal which brought in the idea of a young business man coming to the city and settling down to earnest endeavor. Following his marriage to a supposed local belle, the purchasing of a house, furniture, automobile, etc., naturally followed. This gave opportunity to show off some of the local businesses as the scenes were photographed in a number of local shops.

Lots of Laughter

The Boys' Charlie Chaplin contest brought out bursts of laughter, and these pictures were followed by the personal appearance on the stage of the children who took part. Prizes were awarded the first three acclaimed the best by the judgment of the audience.

The three boys were George Smith, 939 East Lexington drive; Henry Moly of West Lexington drive and David Chasse of 615 North Orange.

Stereopticon views of about 100 Glendale places of business were also shown.

The Cosmopolitan production "Enchantment," featuring Marion Davies, an exceedingly charming and pleasing picture, was enjoyed by all. In fact the entire program was well received by the audience.

The same show in its entirety will be repeated today and tonight.

Lightweights Prepare for Winter Campaign

By JACK VEIOCK
Written for International News Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—A campaign that may bring the long dormant featherweight division of boxing to life was launched here today.

Tex Rickard, chief of boxing promoters, and Tommy McGinty of Cleveland, new manager of Danny Frush, signed an agreement calculated to start the ball rolling.

McGinty, who promoted the championship bout between Kilbane and Frush last September, has booked his boxer with Rickard for a series of four bouts in Madison Square garden against the best featherweights available. He hopes, eventually, to force Kilbane into a return match.

According to McGinty, Kilbane has demanded $100,000 from Rickard for defending his title in the Garden with the stipulation that he is not to meet Frush. This is the sum Jack Dempsey got for fighting Bill Brennan.

Five aside from Kilbane are in line for matches with Frush in New York. They are Andy Chaney, Billy DeFoe, Charley Beecher, Sammy Sieger and Harvey Bright, erstwhile Columbia student, who has fought his way to a position among the top notchers.

HARDING CALLS MEETING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—President Harding has summoned Republican leaders and committee chairmen of the senate to confer with him at the White House during the present week. The president, it is understood, desires to discuss the legislative program before the next session, and the possibility of the passage of the bill giving the power of funding the foreign debts of the nation into the hands of a commission.

SHANTUNG IS DISCUSSED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The controversial question of Shantung was introduced in the armament and Far East conference for the first time at a secret meeting of the powers in the pan-American building. It was reported that Japan evinced a willingness to negotiate with the Chinese delegation here concerning the issue and that discussions will take place in Washington between the two delegations.

Vilhjamar Stefansson, Noted Explorer, Will Lead Another British Arctic Expedition

This noted explorer appeared in Glendale some months ago when he was on the program at the Chautauqua held here. He gave a most interesting lecture.

By THOMAS WRIGLEY
Written for International News Service

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 2.—A gigantic British expedition will be sent into the frozen north early next summer, according to Vilhjamar Stefansson, the noted explorer. He further revealed that a base for the expedition has already been established on Wrangel Island, 110 miles north of Siberia, but stated that at this time he could not divulge the purpose of the trip.

The expedition, he said, will be organized in March, either in Canada or England, and that information concerning the voyage into the Arctic will be made public in London after the organization is completed.

Explorer Stefansson made his disclosures regarding the expedition as he stopped over in this city while on a trip of a personal nature. He was able to give out the first news concerning it because he had just received word that his advance guard had reached Wrangel Island.

"Early last September," he stated, "I financed and sent a small expedition into the north. The ship sailed from Nome, Alaska, with its destination concealed, because I did not wish to be preceded."

The object of the voyage of the six men, Stefansson explained, was to establish the base for the great British expedition to follow.

Three of the men now at Wrangel Island are explorers who wandered over the frozen wastes of the Arctic with Stefansson on other expeditions. They will be occupied all winter in preparing the base for the expedition.

Speaking of the development and colonization of the Northland, Stefansson declared that development will surely begin with the present generation.

"The mystery woven around the North," he said, "has resulted from misinformation. Theories that it is uninhabitable have been forever rejected, for it has been proved that fuel and food exist in abundance. Travelers have died for want of them because they were unaware of their presence."

"Since the true conditions in the North have been realized," he continued, "colonization and commercial exploitation will surely follow.

"The animal life is the basis of attraction for commerce. At first it would be largely a source of meat supply, but there are also large deposits of oil, coal, copper and other metals."

The problem of transportation will solve itself, Stefansson declared.

"There are two major difficulties standing in the way of Northern development," the explorer added.

"The first is the wall of Chinese ignorance.

"The second is the power of French and English fashions. At Nome, Alaska, the majority of the women wear silk hose, decollette gowns and sometimes more jewelry than clothing. They refuse to accede to the demands of the weather because of the power of fashion."

Stefansson added that there are hundreds of thousands of men eager to go into the North. He said that before his last expedition he received about 10,000 applications from men who wanted to go with his party.

DENY MARY PICKFORD ILL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—A report that Mary Pickford is seriously ill in London and is "broken in health," was denied in a cablegram received from Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, mother of the noted film star, who is with her in Paris. It was sent to Miss Pickford's representative. Mrs. Pickford stated in her message that she and her daughter and the latter's husband, Douglas Fairbanks, would sail for the United States December 15. They expect to reach Los Angeles about January 1.

WILL CONTEST MAY RESULT

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—There was a considerable speculation today as to whether Mrs. Fred Kohl, wife of the millionaire San Frisciscan who suicided last week at Del Monte, will contest the will on file at Redwood City, which cuts her off with $250,000 or an annual income of $12,000 and leaves between $4,500,000 and $5,000,000 to Mrs. Marion Louderback Lord, a friend. The Kohls had been separated and it is understood the bequest to the wife was in accordance with the terms of a separation agreement, complete details of which have not been made public. Mrs. Lord and her mother were visiting at Del Monte at the time Kohl suicided. She is the former wife of Arthur Lord of New York City, but now makes her home in this city.

2 CHARGES OF BURGLARY

BERKELEY, Dec. 1.—Patrick O'Brien, alias George L. Hobbs, aged 25, who says he is the adopted son of George W. Hobbs, prominent Detroit attorney and former member of the Michigan state legislature, was held to answer to superior court on two charges of burglary. Bail was set at $5000. The accused man is said by the police to have operated under both names and was said to have been a parole violator from Detroit.

CHINA OBJECTS TO TROOPS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Chinese delegates to the conference have given formal notice that they will press for the removal of all foreign troops which are now on Chinese soil "without legal justification," as well as withdrawal of the legation guards and foreign police that are in China as a result of the agreement arising out of the Boxer uprising twenty years ago.

Tax Revision Sale

Demonstrators and Used Cars

The expected revision of the income tax law makes it advisable for us to dispose of all of our slightly used demonstrators and second hand cars during December.

Prices have been sharply reduced from an already low level. Some of the demonstrators have been run less than 500 miles but are quoted at, or near, our wholesale factory cost.

It would be difficult to distinguish between them and brand new cars and they will carry a full new-car guarantee.

The prices on our second hand cars have been very low which accounts for the large number we have been selling. During the month of December we will make the prices so attractive that the entire stock will be moved.

It costs nothing to investigate. Do it NOW.

An early call will insure a wider range of choice.

AUTO CLUB SAFETY CAMPAIGN STARTS; PUBLIC TO AID

Organization Plans to Make Every Effort to Reduce the Number of Accidents

Beginning its activities for an educational safety campaign to preserve human life and limb, the Automobile Club of Southern California has enlisted for this purpose the services of all its branch offices throughout southern California, as well as its home office.

Manager M. B. Towman of the Glendale office has taken up the work under the direction and with the assistance of the club and the experts employed by this organization, and the plan is to make the movement continuous, aggressive and comprehensive.

This relates not only to safety in regard to automobile and traffic accidents, but to all sources of accidents which are likely to deprive men, women and children of their lives or the use of their limbs and faculties.

Education Is Necessary

Education, in the last analysis, is the basic foundation for guarding human safety, and the citizens of Glendale, the school principals and teachers, the churches and press, and the various civic and social organizations of this city can aid tremendously in this crucial campaign.

The slaughter of children, for one thing, is simply appalling. In the United States in 1916, 1045 children under 10 years of age were killed by automobiles alone. In the same year, 9,489 little lives were snuffed out from various other accidents, all under ten years of age.

In the period covering 1907-1916 no less than 99,713 children, whose ages ranged from infancy up to 14 years, were killed accidentally in the United States. In 1917, in the United States, 9,044 children of ages up to 14 years were killed through accidental causes.

Economic Loss Great

The aggregate economic loss for that year, 1917, on account of the total deaths from accident in that year was $2,229,156,000.

Glendale lost part of that sum, to say nothing of the tears, agony and bereavement occasioned. In no civilized country is life so cheap as in the United States.

Spasmodic attempts to remedy conditions accomplish little. There must be a concerted, vigorous and continued effort to bring about lasting results. In this connection, Detroit and St. Louis have shown what can be done to reduce accidental mortality among the school children.

Locals and Personals

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Altland of 1006 East Lomita avenue motored to Alhambra last night, where they attended a party at the home of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Altman are newcomers to Glendale, they having moved here from Los Angeles several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Keleher of 528 North Louise street have been entertaining as their guests for the past two weeks Mr. Keleher's mother and sister, Mrs. J. T. Keleher of San Francisco and Mrs. C. H. Edwards of Oakland. They leave tomorrow for their homes in the northern cities.

Mrs. C. G. Woods of Grand View avenue was in Los Angeles Sunday morning expecting to see her nephew, Prince Napoleon Ruspoli, who she had understood was one of General Diaz's aides. Prince Ruspoli married Mrs. Wood's niece, Miss Catherine Quay, whose father was American consul to Florence, Italy. Upon arriving in Los Angeles, however, Mrs. Woods found that the Prince Ruspoli of the Diaz party was not her nephew but his cousin, both having the same name.

An all-day meeting of the Kensington Club, Women's Relief Corps, was held yesterday in the G. A. R. hall, 900 South Glendale avenue, for the purpose of knotting comforters for the Women's Relief Corps Home at Santa Clara. A large attendance was present and seven comforters were finished. A bounteous luncheon was served at 12 o'clock to about sixty women. In the afternoon a short business meeting was held, with Mrs. Julina Hayes presiding. The meeting adjourned at 4 o'clock.

Members of the Wednesday Club were entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. William Gibson, 514 East Windsor Road. A very delicious cafeteria luncheon was served at noon. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in sewing on Christmas gifts. Those present included Mrs. C. H. Sanders, Mrs. J. H. Hearnshaw, Mrs. G. D. Roach, Mrs. H. L. Clotworthy, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. J. Perkins, Mrs. William F. Nash, Mrs. A. F. Muhleman, Mrs. Charles Glover, Mrs. Charles Freshman of Los Angeles, Miss Clara Ringert and the hostess, Mrs. Gibson.

CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT

The Alice Gentle concert, scheduled or tomorrow night, in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Glendale Music Club, is declared by prominent Glendale musicians and music lovers to be the biggest musical event to take place in Glendale since Constantino was here several years ago. Club members will be admitted free by showing their membership cards at the door, and seats will be held for them until 8 o'clock, after which they will be sold to any one wishing to hear the concert.

GLENDALE BOYS TO ATTEND FESTIVAL ON DECEMBER 10

Grammar School Youths Will Meet Under Supervision of Harry Rimmer

Plans are being made for about 100 boys of the grammar schools of the city to attend the Play Festival to be held on the high school grounds the afternoon of December 10 to enjoy the games which will be under the supervision of Harry Rimmer, Pacific Coast athlete, according to an announcement made by Rex C. Kelley, Y. M. C. A. secretary for the Glendale district.

Mr. Rimmer, who is now lecturing to different Y. M. C. A. groups and who will address the high school students during the assembly hour on December 8, had charge of the athletics in the Pacific coast camps during the war.

Games to Be Held

The afternoon will be devoted to mass games which will correspond to the big spring roundup held last spring at the home of L. C. Brand.

Medals will also be given at this time to the boys who won in the shooting contests at the Y. M. C. A. summer camp at Pine Flats last summer.

It is expected that more than 500 boys in the county will attend the event says Mr. Kelley. In the evening a weiner roast, followed by an address by Mr. Rimmer, will be enjoyed.

BIG INVESTMENT TO BE MADE HERE BY BUSINESS MEN

Large Department Store Will Have Many Unique Features on Its Three Floors

store will be lined up with this string. Local offices will be opened at once in the Citizens' building.

Four buyers will leave at once for New York to assemble the stock for the store here and it is announced that the policy of the store will be to employ department heads and saleswomen from the local ranks wherever possible. Following is a brief description of the building and the departments which it will contain:

There will be three stories and basement, the exterior to be in old gold brick and terra cotta trim with plate-glass show windows to the third floor. There will be two entrances, one on Brand with double swinging doors covered by a marquise and single swinging doors on the Harvard street side under another marquise. Fire escapes also will be located on the Harvard street side.

In the basement the excavation under the sidewalks will permit of stockrooms and elevators having direct ingress from Harvard street. Under the sidewalks with natural light from the street will be located sample rooms where salesmen's merchandise will be viewed in lieu of sample rooms in a commercial hotel. The window trimmer's department also will be located there.

Vaults for Storage

The basement will include a fireproof, concrete vault for the storage of most valuable records, but it will be used largely for storing furs in summer for the women of Glendale and the San Fernando valley. Rest rooms for employes and other features will utilize all of the space below the ground.

On the first floor the fixtures will be in eucalyptus gum wood and the different departments will contain silks, woolens, wash goods, domestics, bedding, laces, embroideries, ribbons, jewelry, handkerchiefs, notions, gloves, hosiery, knit underwear, shoes, and drug sundries.

The second floor fixtures will be in French gray with old rose trim. A ladies' rest room will be a feature. The stock there will include ready-to-wear, furs, infants' department, silk underwear, corsets, muslin underwear and millinery.

The third floor will be finished in mahogany and will include carpets, rugs, draperies, art department and general offices. Of course, all of this is subject to change, but represents the intention of Mr. Pendroy in giving Glendale a new department store, specializing in dry goods.

NECKWEAR PRICES LOWER

"The prices of neckwear are a great deal less this year than last," declared Arthur Jackson of Jackson & Clark, 120 East Broadway, yesterday as he stood beside a screen of dazzling many-hued holiday neckties. He is of the opinion that a little cold weather would stimulate business considerably.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. R. M. Brown of 416 North Kenwood street entertained at luncheon Wednesday. The guests included Mrs. P. J. Schwab, Mrs. W. A. Tanner, Mrs. Marion Straight, Mrs. W. E. Woodside, Mrs. J. K. Hill and Mrs. V. M. Hollister.

HUMAN STORY TOLD IN WALLINGFORD PRODUCTION

Unusual Picture Now Being Shown, Glendale Screen, With Strong Cast

"The Son of Wallingford," which was shown at the Glendale Theatre for the first times yesterday, is a truly great picture. It has many big spectacular scenes but, above all, it is a logical, human story, and does not depend upon grandeur of production for its entertainment. There is as much real human interest in a simple love scene between Jimmy Wallingford and Mary Curtis as in the mammoth staging for which the production has become known. It has its moments of intense dramatic value offset by the more flippant and humorous side of life's little jokes.

The work is a credit to its authors, Lillian and George Randolph Chester, creators of the famous Wallingford stories. In this work Mr. Chester has created his masterpiece, and his hand may be seen in the direction and editing of the film. He has done away with many of the mechanics of the screen, many of which have become tiresome to the public. In "The Son of Wallingford" no letters divulging the plot and no telephone conversation are used.

Characterization Good

The characters are typical of the illustrations used in the earlier series to portray "Blackie" Daw and J. Rufus Wallingford. They also are typical of Mr. Chester's descriptions of the characters and show that the author-director spent much time in casting his production, which includes twenty-two principals, most of whom have either been starred or featured in other productions, and no less than 3,000 actors used for the big mob scenes for which the picture has become famed.

"Say It With Flowers," a Sunshine comedy, also will be seen today in conjunction with the news reel and other film features. Tomorrow will see the first of the new vaudeville shows on the Bert Levy coast-to-coast service.

Chiropractors Get Place Upon Ballot for Examiners' Act

Editor The Evening News:—An initiative petition today qualified to place same on the ballot in November, 1922, known as the Chiropractor Examiner Act, according to an announcement made by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

The proponent of the bill filed in Secretary Jordan's office had 66,991 names, while only 55,094 were necessary. The act provides for the creation of a State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, which is self-sustaining, to examine chiropractors in California, as it has been impossible for chiropractors to obtain license by the Medical Board, which has at all times refused to examine same for chiropractors.

Food Drafts for Russia Explained by Relief Society

Mr. Hoover, chairman, American Relief Administration, 42 Broadway, New York, has issued the following statement re food drafts for Russia:

A cablegram just received from Moscow states that an agreement has been completed between the American Relief Administration and the Soviet authorities covering the sending of food to relatives and friends inside Russia by persons in the United States and abroad who may wish to send them food.

There are at least two million Russians or Americans of Russian descent in the United States and probably one million in Europe outside of Russia, and there has been large demand from them to assist in providing for their relatives and friends in Russia.

The following plan has been established to meet this need and at the same time to provide additional support to the destitute children. Under this plan:

(a) Anyone may remit funds by mail only, payable to the American Relief Administration on New York draft, money order, or certified check in sums of not less than $10 and in multiples of $10 through the American Relief Administration offices in New York, Washington, and London for the benefit of any person or group in Russia.

(b) These remittances must be accompanied by full name and address of beneficiary in Russia and such remittances will be advised to the headquarters of the American Relief Administration in Moscow.

(c) The Moscow office will direct the various American Relief Administration children's warehouses to get in touch with the beneficiaries and deliver food to them corresponding in amount to the money paid.

(d) If beneficiary cannot be found within ninety days, remittances will be refunded to the purchaser. Advice of delivery of the food will, wherever possible, be sent to the purchaser.

(e) Food will consist of eight selections, according to stocks available, from the following commodities: Flour, bacon, lard, vegetable oil, tea, canned milk, hominy, sugar, cocoa, rice, beans. Food will be furnished at cost, but one-quarter of the food purchased with each remittance will be handed to the canteen for the general feeding of destitute children; three-quarters being delivered to the beneficiary of the remittance.

(f) The Relief Administration has so far established warehouses at Petrograd, Moscow, Samara, Simbirsk, Kazan and Saratov, and while orders will be accepted on other regions their execution will depend on arrangements for extending the system. Further warehouses will be established in the course of extension of the general relief to children and if demands for food remittances warrant.

DECREASE SHOWN IN COLLECTIONS OF FEDERAL TAXES

Annual Report Is Submitted by Revenue Head; Booze Permits Are 122,447

BY W. H. ATKINS
Written for International News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—Business deflation following the war caused a drop of $812,579,486 in taxes collected by the government in the last fiscal year, Revenue Commissioner Blair announced in his annual report.

There was paid into the treasury, through collectors of revenue, $4,595,000,000, as compared with $5,407,000,000 the preceding year.

Most of the 9,000,000 taxpayers are meeting their tax obligations on an installment basis, Blair said.

Income and profits taxes raised $3,228,000,000. Other revenue sources were from distilled spirits, fermented liquors, tobacco, oleomargarine, capital stock tax, war excise taxes and documentary stamp sales by postmasters, all of which aggregated $1,366,863,000.

Cost of Collection

It cost the government 87 cents to collect each $100 paid to the government as against 55 cents per $100 the preceding year. Increased cost of collecting the revenues, Mr. Blair said, was due mainly to reduced collections and increased expense in enforcing many new regulatory laws, including the Volstead act.

The commissioner's discussion of the government's control over liquor manufacture and sales disclosed that the distilleries continue to pile up big reserve stocks of whisky for the possible emergency demands of the future.

The whisky plants made 86,365,000 gallons of distilled spirits during the year. This, however, was a decrease of 13,000,000 gallons below the preceding year. There was withdrawn from bond 34,000,000 gallons, an increase of 6,000,000 gallons.

There remains in distilleries and general bonded warehouses 49,000,000 gallons of distilled spirits, most of it well-aged whisky. As compared with last year's figures, this is a decrease of 5,000,000 gallons.

Prepared to Sell Booze

Authorized to deal in liquors or dispose of them lawfully are 122,447 persons. This number includes 36,859 physicians, holding permits to prescribe liquors for their patients. A total of 22,000 permits are outstanding among those authorized to buy and use liquors for manufacturing purposes. There are 16,000 druggists with permits to sell at retail.

The activity of prohibition officials resulted in the revocation of 3068 permits during the year. Penalties and assessments imposed against those whose permits were canceled amounted to $10,592,000, but only $350,000 of that sum has been collected. The remainder is being contested in court or other actions.

NEW STRIFE ON IRELAND

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The question of Sinn Fein recognition of the sovereignty of King George is again threatening to wreck the Irish peace conference, it was revealed by Desmond Fitzgerald, press representative of the Sinn Fein delegation.

"Premier Lloyd George has again approached our delegation on the question of Irish allegiance to the king," said Fitzgerald. "Arthur Griffith explained that the Irish Republicans had been elected and until the people absolve them they cannot accept the sovereignty of the king.

"Similarly, any agreement reached must be submitted to the Irish people for their ratification."

Fitzgerald denied that the Sinn Fein would accept any measure that did not provide for an all-Ireland parliament.

HAITIENS STAGE PROTEST

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Dec. 1.—There was a big patriotic demonstration here when thousands of persons, carrying banners, marched to the statue of Dessalines, the "Haitien liberator," in protest against military occupation of the island. The demonstration was carried out under the auspices of the Society of Young Haiti. In addition to the members, thousands of citizens joined. Speakers asked the immediate abrogation of martial law and the restoration of absolute Haitien independence. They declared the treaty of 1915 was forced on the Haitiens by the United States and that it is illegal. Also they attacked the constitution of 1918, which, they allege, was imposed by the United States.

The investigation of American military occupation by an American Congressional committee continued today.

RELATIONS WITH AUSTRIA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Formal resumption of diplomatic relations with Austria was announced by the state department when Arthur Hugh Frazier was named as charge d'affaires at the American embassy in Vienna. Frazier has been a diplomatic secretary and has acted as ambassador. Confirmation of his appointment by the Senate is not necessary. The state department announced that as soon as conditions make it possible Grant Smith, commissioner at Budapest, will be named as charge d'affaires to Hungary.

of sending $100 for clothing for the men in the public health hospital at Palo Alto, which was authorized by the members present.

Mrs. Bartlett presented reports from the public health nurse of Glendale, showing the work which has been accomplished.

L. T. Rowley also told of some of the work being taken up by the public health nurse, part of whose salary is paid by the local Red Cross chapter and the other part by the city of Glendale.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Archie Parker, Mrs. P. A. Wells and L. T. Rowley, was appointed to secure a supply of home made jellies, jams and other gifts for the former service men at Thornycroft.

The new board of directors will hold a meeting the afternoon of December 8, at 4 o'clock in the rooms of the Glendale Commercial school, at which time election of officers will take place.

Natalie Wood Is One of California Five on Glendale's Bill

Natalie Wood, daughter of Mrs. Adah Wood of 437 Pioneer Drive, was one of the California Five which made its premiere at the Glendale Theatre last night. Like all first nights, Mrs. Walls' offering had such scope that it will require development of the talent.

Adele Kellogg and Miss Wood appear in dancing numbers that are well received, the latter being quite a little artist. Jean Crozier plays the violin pleasingly, while Ludy Munose sings operatic airs. Ensemble numbers registered well and there is an appeal in all of the solo work.

Landru Receives Death Sentence With Humor

By WILLIAM COOK
Written for International News Service

PARIS, Dec. 1—Alone in a squalid room above a harness shop in the Montmarte district, where her husband had left her while he courted scores of "fiancees," the former wife of Henri Landru, "modern Bluebeard," wept steadily today over the news that he had been condemned to death.

"Although he was not true to me and we are divorced, I still love him," wailed the wife. "He could not help it that women loved him."

Madam Landru denied herself to all her friends. She said she was too grief-stricken to see any one.

Another woman who figures in the case of this sensational murderer is a gay, light-hearted actress—Fernande Segret. She was Landru's "last fiancee." They were living together when Landru was arrested, accused of the murder of ten women and a boy.

Mlle. Segret lives in a fashionably furnished apartment. She hugged her Pekinese dog to her bosom and wiped her eyes with a pink embroidered handkerchief.

"It is too bad about Henri," she said. "I could not believe him guilty. I loved Henri. I did not believe he would harm a woman. When his trial was in progress I prayed daily for his acquittal."

Fernande's grief, however, did not keep her from her theatrical engagement. She is to appear tonight in a new revue at a Montmarte music hall and she said she would be on hand without fail.

The verdict condemning Landru to the guillotine seems to have won universal approval. It is believed that Landru's attorney will immediately appeal.

Landru took the death sentence with sardonic good humor. Warders at the Versailles jail said that he had not displayed any emotion.

He arose at the usual hour this morning and drank a quantity of black coffee.

Referring to his prediction that he "would eat his Christmas dinner in Paris," he grinned as he remarked: "I was too hasty."

Little Girl, Reported Missing, Is Murdered

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Margaret Coughlin, 3-year-old, missing since yesterday afternoon, and believed to have been kidnaped was found murdered today in the basement of a house occupied by Mrs. Ralph Pences at 1126 North Avers avenue. Her dismembered legs and arms, wrapped in a newspaper, were smouldering on top of a stove. The torso and the decapitated head were found crammed into a wash boiler.

Mrs. Pences, who occupied the house, was found murdered in a bedroom of the house. Her throat had been cut. The brutal murder is believed to have been the work of a moron. The house was locked when police came to search it and they battered down the doors when they saw smoke issuing from one of the basement windows.

Edward Couglin, father of the slain girl, who was with the police in the search of the neighborhood, identified the loathsome bundle on top of the stove as parts of the body of his child.

CHEATS BANKS, IS CLAIM

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—With Nevada authorities searching for Monte Berg, alleged former Venezuelan revolutionist, to answer a summons to a $41,000 suit brought in Reno, it was learned at the state banking department here that Berg is alleged to have secured $128,000 from four city banking institutions through a process of borrowing on bogus stock certificates.

Berg, according to reports to State Banking Commissioner Dodge, entered upon a career of high finance upon his return from France, where he served as a soldier. He married a wealthy Oakland woman, it was declared, and became president of two northern country banks. He was recently removed from the presidency of these institutions at the instance of Dodge. Both were fully protected. Dodge said, but the banks from which Berg borrowed are probably out the sums advanced. Berg is believed headed back to South America.

HARDING TO TALK TARIFF

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—President Harding's message to the next Congress will deal largely with the tariff question, it was learned from a high authority. It was understood that the president will ask the legislative branches be given wider latitude in adjusting tariff rates and that recommendations will be made that there be protection for American goods from an influx of cheap German goods.

HAYS ANSWERS PROTESTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The mails must be inviolate and the department will go to any length to keep them so. This was the reply of Postmaster-General Hays to the protests against the shooting of tramps by marines guarding the mails. Hays announced that he had replied to the protest of Governor Blaine of Wisconsin against the shooting of a tramp in that state.

HE'S THOUGHTFUL SUICIDE

LONDON—Before hanging himself, a man of Issy-les-Moulineaux, near Paris, took every care to avoid giving trouble to his friends. He left on the dining table a knife with a paper bearing these words: "I leave here a knife for the person who wishes to cut the cord."

The oldest harp in the world is preserved at the Louvre in Paris. It is nearly 4,000 years old and was found in an Egyptian tomb.

Flyer Beheads an Old Spaniard at Barcelona

LONDON—How a British airman neatly beheaded a Spaniard and was excused by the local mayor because "he was an old man, anyway," is told by the London Evening News on the strength of information received at the Croydon Air Station.

This pilot was one of many British airmen who make a specialty of taking up Spaniards for joy rides in and around Madrid and Barcelona. Occasionally, however, the excitement is too much for the Spaniards and, in their enthusiasm, they crowd on to the aerodrome, running toward the spot where they think the machine will land.

On this occasion the pilot made three attempts to alight, but each time the crowd spread over the ground, making landing impossible.

Finally, determined to get down to earth somehow, he flew low over the crowd, scattering them beneath him, and managed to find sufficient space whereon to put down his plane.

Just as he was landing he felt a slight bump, and after his machine had come to a standstill turned round to find that the under-carriage had struck one of the spectators, taking off his head with mathematical exactitude.

The crowd immediately became hostile and the pilot ran hard to the house of the mayor of the district. Entering breathlessly he told his story, and was closely followed by some of the crowd who related their version of the affair.

After hearing all sides the mayor turned to the pilot and assured him that everything would be all right.

"He was an old man," said the mayor, "and would have died very soon, in any case."

MADRID, Dec. 1.—It was reported in parliamentary circles today that the powers have invited France, Italy and Spain to intervene in Portugal and restore order. Unrest has again broken out in Portugal and disorders are reported rom various quarters.

Gold Discovered in Northwest Illinois

FREEPORT, Ill.—Mining for gold in the rocky hills of northwestern Illinois is expected to begin in the near future as the result of the discovery of gold in Stephenson county, just west of the village of Pearl City.

A corporation is being formed to exploit 1800 acres of land in that region because of the belief that vast quantities of gold may be had for the taking.

According to promoters of the company ore taken from a depth of from thirty to fifty feet has produced from $11 to $18 a ton in gold.

Traces of gold were first discovered on the Weimer farm, near Pearl City, more than a year ago. The find was made by well diggers. William Weimer, owner of the farm, sought to interest men with money in the gold prospects but failed. His widow, however, was more successful, especially when, recently, the crop of ducks raised on the Weimer place were found to contain small bits of gold ore.

Gamblers in Cemetery Not Safe From Cops

PARKERSBURG, W. Va.—In a sly effort to escape the observation of troopers who have been aiding local city and county authorities in breaking up gambling resorts, one band of gamblers opened up for business in a cemetery on the outskirts of the city. The playing was conducted at night, the usual refreshments were on hand, and lookouts were duly posted. But the constabulary was tipped off and a raid was made on the cemetery. Twenty-five or thirty were engaged in playing poker and the lookouts did their duty manfully by forwarding signals for them to vamoose. All made their getaway except two men, who were taken into custody and marched to jail for trial.

The United States is now making for its laboratories 800 rare chemicals which were formerly imported entirely from Germany.
